A Christmas Message

Dear Friends,

It is our pleasure that you are here to worship at the feet of the Christ-child. Tonight we celebrate the incarnation of Jesus Christ—the coming of God to be Emmanuel, God with us. We remember this evening that Jesus did not come into a world of holiday cheer. Rather, his parents found no place to stay in Bethlehem. Jesus came to us as a humble child, meek and lowly, and was given a place to rest in a manger.

We celebrate the totality of Jesus' coming on this Christmas night. Bethlehem means "house of bread." Thus, as Jesus was born in Bethlehem, so we are born anew as we partake of the bread and cup that God in Christ fully offers all of humankind. Let us with joyful and humble hearts receive the greatest gift of all—Jesus, who is the Christ.
